MR. KEITH PRICE

SUPERINTENDENT, GEORGETOWN COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT

Keith Price, Superintendent of Georgetown County School District since June 2020, previously served as Assistant Superintendent in Richland School District Two in suburban Columbia, South Carolina, overseeing secondary education, athletics, and planning from 2014 to 2020.

Before becoming Assistant Superintendent, he served as principal of Blythewood High School for seven years. An educator for 27 years, Price took on his first administrative role after teaching mathematics for four years. He served as assistant administrator at Ridge View High School before working as an assistant principal at E.L. Wright Middle School. In 2003, he was named the principal of E.L. Wright and held that position for four years before he became principal at Blythewood High.

Price earned a bachelor's degree in secondary mathematics education from Clemson University. He earned a Master of Education and Education Specialist degree in educational leadership from the University of South Carolina and he is currently working towards earning his doctorate degree, also from the University of South Carolina. Price served a three-year term on the Clemson University Board of Visitors and is currently a member of the Coastal Carolina University Board of Visitors. He was recently named the 2022 Georgetown Rotarian of the Year. He was the 2019-2020 Richland County Education Office Professionals Administrator of the Year, S.C. Association of School Librarians' Administrator of the Year for 2014-2015, and the recipient of the 2013-2014 South Carolina Art Education Association's Outstanding Secondary Principal Award. Mr. Price is a member of the S.C. Association of School Administrators, the American Association of School Administrators, Rotary, the Pee Dee Education Consortium Board of Directors, the S.C. Department of Commerce Waccamaw Region's Advisory Board, and is a 2021 Riley Institute Diversity Fellow.

Price and his wife Janet have four daughters: Amanda, Camryn, Lauren, and Micah.

MS. DEMETRIUS WILLIAMS

PRINCIPAL, EARLY COLLEGE HIGH SCHOOL

Demetrius Williams, Principal of Early College High School since June 2020, has been employed in public education for 29 years, 18 of those years as a classroom teacher in Horry County Schools. She previously served as an Assistant Principal for six years at Whittemore Park Middle School. A native of the Bucksport Community, she began her career as a social studies teacher in 1992. In 2005, she was recognized as the Horry County Schools Teacher of the Year, and in 2007 received her National Board Teacher Certification.

Williams has a foundation of educational leadership experiences having been an instructional coach and assistant principal. At the district level, she also served as the Director of Middle School Summer School for three years where she supervised instructional programs at five middle schools.

A proud alumna of Horry County Schools, graduating from Conway High School in 1988, Ms. Williams continued her academic pursuits at the University of South Carolina, earning a bachelor's degree in Secondary Education Social Studies in 1992, followed by a master's degree in History from the same institution. She furthered her qualifications with an Education Specialist degree in K-12 Educational Leadership from Jones International University.

Under her dynamic leadership, HCS Early College High School has garnered prestigious accolades, including the S.C. Department of Education's 2021 National ESEA Distinguished Schools award and designation as an AVID Site of Distinction. Notably, the school achieved the remarkable distinction of being ranked the third best public high school in South Carolina based on 2023 rankings from Niche, a testament to Principal Williams' unwavering commitment to academic excellence and student success.

ACADEMIC HONORS

Horry-Georgetown Technical College recognizes students who are dual-enrolled in high school and are earning a certificate or associate degree with a white cord.

HONORS PROGRAM

Students must be enrolled in the HGTC Honors Program and complete the minimum curriculum requirements of five university transferable courses in specified areas while maintaining a minimum college GPA of 3.5 and completing a minimum of one honors course per semester until program requirements are fulfilled. Students are exposed to rigorous in-class and out-of-class learning opportunities, mentoring in learning opportunities to raise community and global awareness, and a milieu that creates students who are intellectual and diverse leaders. Honors Program graduates are provided a medallion worn at commencement.

Eliezer Reuven Goldschmidt

Horry-Georgetown Technical College recognizes students who attain academic honors with a yellow cord.

There are three designations for recognition: summa cum laude, requiring an overall grade point average of 4.00;
magna cum laude, requiring an overall grade point average of 3.75 - 3.99;
and cum laude, requiring an average of 3.50 - 3.74.

Honors for candidates are based on the cumulative grade point average on file at the time of printing.
