Chairperson

Horry-Georgetown Technical College will hold the Commencement Ceremony for graduates annually. All associate, diploma, and certificate degree-seeking students who complete their academic requirements during the Fall or Spring Semester, of the current academic year, are invited to participate in commencement.

Additionally, students who will complete their degree requirements by the end of the summer term of that current academic year may participate in the commencement exercises. The same requirements apply to these students as stated in Policy 8.6.1.2 (Student Requirements for Graduation).
